EXPLORE OUR BACKROADS & TRAILS OUR RESIDENTS ARE REALLY FRIENDLY!

BARN QUILT TRAIL

Take a scenic drive to discover these roadside gems — colourful quilt designs featured on rural properties — and enjoy the countryside.

THOMAS HAYES ECOLOGICAL RESERVE

Thomas Hayes farmed this land from the 1880's until the 1960's. The park area has been preserved in the name of Thomas Hayes in a joint lease by Armstrong Spallumcheen from the Ministry of Environment, Land and Parks. This area is home to a wide diversity of plants, birds and animals.

TRAIL SAFETY

Bears are seen in the area. No water is available. Good runners or hiking boots are recommended.

MOUNT ROSE SWANSON

Rose was the name of the first white child who was born in this area in 1862 to her pioneer mother Catherine (O'Hare) Schubert. Rose Schubert married Mr. Henry Swanson.

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS

Bears are seen in the area. No water is available. Allow approximately 3 hours if hiking all the trails. Good runners or hiking boots are recommended. Take a camera for the great views!

FARM MARKETS

The Winter Farmers' Market is held indoors at the Odd Fellows Hall Saturday mornings November thru April. The outdoor Armstrong Farmers' Market at the fairgrounds is held the last Saturday in April thru October.
